A CHANGE OF BASE

WE reproduce below a dispatch from the Pittsburgh Press upon "The New, Future Champions." The editorial says: "That portrait of the public which makes a hero out of the new and the coming, will not be easily bearing the word. Mr. Zeller is seventy years old, and has been in the ring for the last thirty-five years. The public respect for him is due to his extraordinary courage and fighting skill.

This is a dispatch from the London Times upon the recent tournament in America, which has acquired a great name and a great deal of attention. The three leading candidates were all British, and the American public are very much interested in the outcome.

ON THE DANCE floor: A new dance floor has been erected in the London Times, and the public are very much interested in the outcome.

FREEMASONRY IN "The Negro World" is the second part of the letter to the editor by the Rev. J. J. Johnson, the Negro World, New York, October 7, 1902.

The Negro World is not known as a journal of opinion, but it is known as a journal of action. It is known as a working paper, a paper that is trying to do something for the public, for the people.

In the Negro World, the Negro is not a slave, but a free man.

The Negro World is not a journal of opinion, but a journal of action, a working paper, trying to do something for the people.
