FELLOWSHIP OF THE NEGRO RACE, GREETING

The Negro peoples of the world have been given a deep—deep of world sentiments—to create for themselves a Nationalism and an Imperialism through which they hope to one only save themselves, in this generation, but so guaranty to posterity a security worthy of men.

World Enthusiasm

In this mighty urge toward a purpose, it behoves every man, woman and child of the earth to work with an en- tire heart and soul to create a new world. The world is a great and noble thing. The world is not a thing that can just be left alone. The world is a thing that must be worked for. The world is a thing that must be worked for. The world is a thing that must be worked for.
