Will Speak on India

H. G. Mudgal, a native of India, writer, lecturer and student of Columbia University, will speak on “The Significance of India’s Revolution” this evening at Excelsior Hall, 687 Lenox avenue.

LATE NEWS BULLETINS

TO VIEW GILPIN’S BODY HERE

The body of Charles Gilpin, noted actor and star of “Emperor Jones,” who died May 6 at Eldrege Park, near Trenton, will be disinterred tomorrow and brought here to be viewed by theatrical people and admirers Sunday at the Duncan Brothers’ funeral establishment, 2303 Seventh avenue.

Jesse Shipp, Sam Patterson and William C. Elkins will have charge of the simple exercises. The body will be viewed at 2 p.m. Sunday with representatives from fraternal orders, the theatrical bodies and players of the Lafayette and Alhambra theatres and “The Green Pastures” company. Interment will be in Woodlawn Cemetery.