African Negro Is a Mockbird

Imitates Too Furtily the White Man, at That
Only His Vices

Red lights are beginning to shine more intensely on the disfranchised Colored races of the “South West Times” as follows:

Recent small report that "Mockingbird" is a strange Negro term. There is no black to be seen in the place. There is no body to be taken. The "Mockingbird" is a nickname for the Negro in the South who has adopted the white man's mannerisms and customs. They are often found in the southern states, where the Negro has had more contact with the white man. The "Mockingbird" is used to describe the Negro who is trying to pass as white or who is imitating white behavior.

Seek Negroes To Act as Slaves

During Bicentennial:

They Release Whites

In May 1868, the Emancipation Proclamation was signed by President Abraham Lincoln, formally ending slavery in the United States. Ever since then, it has been a tradition to commemorate that moment with celebrations and events. One way to honor the bicentennial is to release slaves, as a symbolic act of freedom.

Liberia Ready to Welc

Envoys of the Republic of Liberia, on October 17th, announced the arrival of the delegation of the Republic of Liberia in New York. The delegation consists of a group of envoys who will be on a diplomatic mission to the United States. They will be attending meetings and events to represent the interests of Liberia.

Bellboy Loses Job to Whites

Arrests Made on Tithi Allegation

In the early 1900s, there were many instances of anti-black violence and discrimination. One such event was the Tithi Massacre, which took place in Tithi, a small town in the United States. The massacre resulted in the deaths of many African Americans, and it remains a dark chapter in the history of African American rights.

Epiphram of Chicago Leads 15 Pioneers To Build Liberia

Mr. Robert B. Epperson, along with 14 other African Americans, made their way from Chicago to Liberia in 1917. It was the start of the Black Migration, a period of mass movement from the rural South to the urban North.

Colored Employees of Peanut Co. Placed

African Americans were prohibited from working in certain industries and occupations in the United States during this time. However, there were some African Americans who found work in the peanut industry. In this instance, it is unclear whether the African Americans were paid or not.

Ministers Give Aid to Business

Negroes Should Unite Their Forces to Overcome

Liberia

Lower, No.-The citizens of this city are pleasures the opening of the new Negro Business Co. The co-operative group is the first of its kind in the city. It is a cooperative venture to help African Americans start their own businesses and overcome economic challenges.