William Solomon Attracts Bevy Of Race Followers by Fair Play

Commissioner Goldberg & Leading Lieutenant of 17th A. D. Leader, Mrs. Davidson Fine--Organizer of Colored Women

The announcement that Mrs. Solomon would throw his sister's prize race, at the end of the season, was received with a rush of interest by the keen race followers. Mrs. Solomon is well known for his skill in handling a horse, and his sister, Mrs. D. A. Leader, is also a keen racer. The leading women of the city have been flocking to the track, eager to see the result of Mrs. Solomon's first attempt at racing.

Mrs. Davidson Fine, who is also known as the "Queen of the Track," has been hard at work preparing for the big event. She has been studying the conditions of the race track, and has been putting in long hours with her horses. She is expected to make a strong showing in the race, and is certain to draw a large crowd.

De Priest Uses Catholic Hall

Opposition to Talk About Being Ignored

MIDLAND, Ala.--Despite the appeals of the Negroes in the area, and several groups of Negroes, including the local chapter of the NAACP, the Mayor has refused to grant special permission for the use of Catholic Hall in the city. This action has angered many people, and has led to a great deal of discussion.

A few years ago, Catholic Hall was opened to Negroes in the city, but since then has been used only for white events. The mayor has refused to grant permission for its use, stating that the city has other places where Negroes can gather. This has led to a great deal of discussion, and many people are calling for the mayor to reconsider his decision.

Virginia Theological Seminary and College

A SCHOOL OF NEGRO STATESMANSHIP

The Negro must build and maintain his own educational institutions, and train his own leaders. He can do this in an independent Negro university. We have surveyed a group of Negro universities and colleges, and are confident that Negroes can design and staff these institutions for themselves.
