LOCAL AND NATIONAL NEWS

Interracial Conference Will Meet in Norfolk This Month

"Progress to the Free Art of Communistic Living" will be the general theme of the "Interracial Conference" which will be held at the North American Hotel of Norfolk, Virginia, at the instigation of the Virginia Interracial Union, under the presidency of Dr. R. H. Freeman, of the University of Chicago.

The conference will be held at the Freemason Street Baptist Church, beginning Monday at 10 a.m. The sessions will start at 10 a.m. and continue until 4 p.m., with a meeting of the executive committee and the closing session on Tuesday afternoon.

African American leaders are among the speakers at the conference. The sessions will deal with the problems of the negro race and the progress of the movement toward the ultimate realization of the ideals of the conference.

No Tickets for Public Services, Says Gandhi

LONDON. French and British leaders are urging the Indian government to impose a curfew in the city. In response, India has announced that no public services will go on during the week.

"We are as poor as a church mouse," said a manager at the booking office of the London theater. "There's not a single ticket left for our performances this week."

Just Two Weeks for Gandhi's Trial

In April, Gandhi was arrested and charged with sedition. His trial is scheduled to begin on April 15th, with the first session on April 17th. The trial is expected to last two weeks, with the final session on April 29th.

Gandhi: America's Racism Target

At a recent speech, Gandhi compared America's racism to the racism prevalent in India. He said, "We are fighting against the same kind of racism in America as in India."

Gandhi: America's Racism Target

At a recent speech, Gandhi compared America's racism to the racism prevalent in India. He said, "We are fighting against the same kind of racism in America as in India."

Local News

Langston Hughes' Novel "The Emperor Lewis" is one of the books currently popular among the students of the American Library Association. In the first week of April, the novel was made available to the public.

It is planned to sell the novel through a subscription plan, with three installments of five dollars each. The subscription plan is designed to help the author and the publisher recover the costs of the novel.

Popularize Contest Is Forging Ahead; Great Interest Is Shown

Applications for contestants are being accepted now, with the deadline set for May 15th. The winners will be announced on June 1st.

Rev. L. Heusman's Remedies Are Without-Equal for Relief of Bodily Pains

Rev. L. Heusman, minister of the Second Avenue Baptist Church, has developed a cure for many bodily ailments.

Heusman: The secret of reviving the body is found in simple remedies. Thousands of remedies from different people have shown Heusman's remedies to be effective.

Man and woman who thought otherwise became regular users of Heusman's remedies. They attribute their health to Heusman's remedies and have recommended them to others.

The remedies are available at the church or through the mail. For more information, write to Rev. L. Heusman, Second Avenue Baptist Church, 355 Lenox Avenue, New York, N. Y.

FREE! To All Sick People

Rev. L. Heusman's Remedies Are Without-Equal for Relief of Bodily Pains

The secret of reviving the body is found in simple remedies. Thousands of remedies from different people have shown Heusman's remedies to be effective.

Man and woman who thought otherwise became regular users of Heusman's remedies. They attribute their health to Heusman's remedies and have recommended them to others.

The remedies are available at the church or through the mail. For more information, write to Rev. L. Heusman, Second Avenue Baptist Church, 355 Lenox Avenue, New York, N. Y.

White Deer Dies For Sport

RAGLETON, N. C.—Offices of the Raleigh News and Observer remove the body of the white deer. The deer was killed by a hunter in the nearby woods.

The deer had been a favorite of the Raleigh News and Observer staff. The deer had been spotted many times in the woods near the newspaper's offices.

The deer was a regular visitor, and the staff had grown fond of it. The deer had been seen running through the woods, and the staff had taken many photographs of it.

The deer was killed by a hunter, who was trying to shoot it with his bow and arrow. The deer was badly wounded and died at the scene of the accident.

The news office is now closed, and the staff is in mourning for the loss of their beloved white deer.