FRIENDS MOURN PASSING OF JOHN H. SMITH

King Solomon Masons Mourn
The Death of John H. Smith, Grand Master for Twelve Years

Persons from every walk of life and of both races crowded into Bethany Baptist Church on Thursday, September 8, to pay the respects of respect to John H. Smith, 33rd degree, Most W. M., Grand Master of the Most Worshipful King Solomon Grand Lodge Ancient Free and Accepted Masons Inc., of the State of New York and also Imperial Potentate of the Imperial Grand Council Ancient Arabic Order Nobles of the Mystic Shrine, at Funeral services Thursday morning. The Rev. Kimmel L. Warren officiated and paid a high tribute to the memory and character of the deceased, who was a member of the church.

The members of the executive committee of Kent Temple B. P. O. E. Attended Masses on the floor and were present at the ceremony. John H. Smith, who was 62 years old and a member of Bethany B. H. Church, was a member of the lodge and a member of the Masonic Order for over 20 years. He was a member of the Masonic Order for over 20 years.

D. R. Granger

Presbyterian Notes

JOHN H. SMITH DIES

New York City—John H. Smith, 33rd degree, Most W. M., Grand Master of the Most Worshipful King Solomon Grand Lodge Ancient Free and Accepted Masons Inc., of the State of New York and also Imperial Potentate of the Imperial Grand Council Ancient Arabic Order Nobles of the Mystic Shrine, at Funeral services Thursday morning.

The Family

The Smith family has been active in the craft for many years and has a long history of service to the Masonic community.

John H. Smith was born on January 10, 1890, in New York City, the son of John H. Smith Sr. and Mary A. Smith. He was educated in the public schools of New York City and went on to attend Harvard University, where he received a Bachelor of Arts degree in 1912.

John H. Smith was a prominent Mason and served as the 33rd degree, Most W. M., Grand Master of the Most Worshipful King Solomon Grand Lodge Ancient Free and Accepted Masons Inc., of the State of New York and also Imperial Potentate of the Imperial Grand Council Ancient Arabic Order Nobles of the Mystic Shrine.

In addition to his Masonic duties, John H. Smith was a successful business man and had a long career in banking. He served as the Chairman of the Board of Directors for several major banks and was a leading figure in the New York City banking community.

John H. Smith was also an active member of the community and was involved in various charitable organizations. He was a member of the New York City Bar Association and served as a director of several non-profit organizations.

John H. Smith passed away on September 8, 1958, in New York City. He was predeceased by his wife, Mary A. Smith, and is survived by his daughter, Mary Smith, and his son, John H. Smith Jr.

In Memoriam

John H. Smith was a dedicated Mason and a respected member of his community. He will be missed by his family and friends, as well as the Masonic community, for his dedication and service.